

VICTORIAN ABORIGINAL HEALTH SERVICE
Caring for the Community

Clinical Nurse | St Alban's Clinic

- Rewarding opportunity to make a real difference
- Engagement & collaboration with key stakeholders and the community

About the Organisation

The Victorian Aboriginal Health Service (VAHS) was established in 1973 to address the specific medical needs of Victorian Aboriginal communities. The organisation has expanded steadily over past 40 years to provide a comprehensive range of medical, dental, and social services for our community.

As well as providing a variety of medical services, VAHS is committed to supporting the well-being of the community through contributions to community events and activities. VAHS is also committed to assisting research into the ongoing needs of the community.

VAHS is a child safe organisation.
